Our Presenters

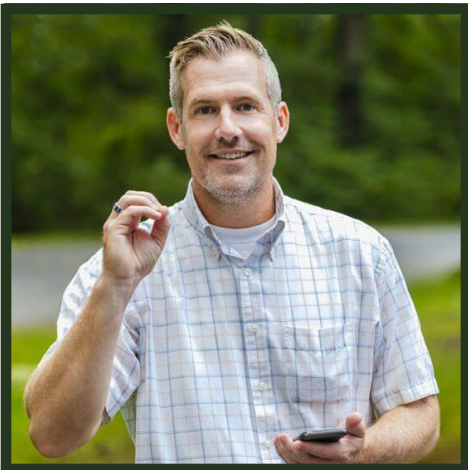

Paul Tonks has been a Utah Assistant Attorney General, and for the past 14 years has been assigned as legal counsel to the Division of Archives and the State Records Committee. Paul previously worked in private practice, as an Ohio Assistant Attorney General, a law clerk with the Ohio Courts of Appeals, and he shot hippos at Disneyland on the Jungle Cruise ride for three summers.

Paul has now been practicing law for 25 years and hopes that someday practice will finally make perfect.

Terri Scovill has been the Global Records and Information Manager at Autoliv for over 20 years. With this experience she has a history of working in the automotive industry. Over the past year, she has been integral in the implementation of a new Corporate RIM program. She is leading the efforts to help ensure that not only Autoliv's records, but also their information, are managed properly and consistently throughout its lifecycle.

Dr. Dan Chase is originally from Laie, Hawaii and is a founding partner/consultant at 6P Leadership. He currently serves as the Director of Leadership and Organizational Development for the State of Utah's Division of Human Resources. Dan has presented for various organizations across the country and has consulted with many public and private organizations, including management and executive coaching.

Dr. Chase is also a faculty member with the "Gettysburg Leadership Experience" in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. Formerly Dan was an adjunct faculty member for the Organizational and Leadership Strategy Department at Brigham Young University (BYU) and the Communications Department and the Woodbury School of Business at Utah Valley University. He is also an ATD Certified Expert Coach®. Dan earned an M.P.A. from BYU emphasizing in organizational behavior and HR and a Ph.D. from the University of Utah with a research emphasis on the institutional leadership of Abraham Lincoln. He and his wife, Annie, reside in Riverton, Utah and have two sons, Dallas and Eric, and a daughter, Aly.
